STATE OF COLORADO
CASE NO. OS 2012-_____

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPLAINT FILED BY MATTHEW ARNOLD REGARDING ALLEGED CAMPAIGN AND POLITICAL FINANCE VIOLATIONS BY THE 527 POLITICAL ORGANIZATION 'COLORADANS FOR A BETTER FUTURE'

Claimant Matthew Arnold, pro se, by and pursuant to Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII and C.R.S. § 1-45-101. et seq., asserts this Complaint against Respondents Coloradans for a Better Future (CFBF) and in support thereof alleges as follows:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. Coloradans for a Better Future ("CFBF") is registered and operating pursuant to Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code at P.O. Box 300233, Denver CO 80203. CFBF also registered as a political organization with the Colorado Secretary of State on 7 July 2009. See State of Colorado, Department of State letter dated 7 July 2009 (Exhibit A, attached).
2. According to its state registration, the registered agent for CFBF is Andy Nickel. CFBF's stated purpose is "Issue and Policy Advocacy." (See Colorado Secretary of State TRACER website, Coloradans for a Better Future, Committee Information, Purpose – attached as Exhibit B, "CFBF Committee Detail and Purpose Statement").
3. On or about 15 June 2012, CFBF, through its agent Thin Mint Media LLC, contracted to purchase radio air time on various Denver Metro radio stations for a series of advertisements promoting Brian Davidson for CU Regent. The ad announces that Brian Davidson is a candidate for the CU Regent At-Large in the Republican primary election, and highlights endorsements of Davidson's candidacy by Hank Brown (Davidson's "Honorary Campaign Chair") and other political figures. (See CFBF Report of Contributions and Expenditures, 18 June 2012, attached as Exhibit C).
4. CFBF purchased additional radio advertisements in support of Brian Davidson for CU Regent (BD-CUR) through its agent High Point Public Affairs on 15 & 16 June 2012, and again from its agent Thin Mint Media LLC on 18 & 21 June 2012. (See, CFBC Report of Contributions and Expenditures, 2 July 2012, attached as Exhibit D).
5. On or about 17 June 2012, CFBF, through its agents Thin Mint Media LLC and High Point Public Affairs, contracted to purchase radio air time on various Denver Metro radio stations for a series of advertisements attacking Brian Davidson's primary election opponent, Matt Arnold. The ads contained defamatory attacks, including false allegations of criminal activity by Matt Arnold, designed to smear Davidson's opponent and enhance Davidson's electoral prospects in the 2012 June primary election.

6. According to the 18 June 2012 and 2 July 2012 Reports of Contributions and Expenditures filed by CFBF, CFBF received contributions totaling $41,000 (contribution of $20,000 on 12 June 2012, contribution of $10,000 on 15 June 2012, $8,500 on 20 June 2012 and $2,500 on 21 June 2012), all from a single organization ("Colorado Justice Alliance", PO Box 862, Parker CO 80134). (See, Report of Contributions and Expenditures, 18 June 2012 and 2 July 2012, Exhibits C and D).
7. Also according to the 18 June 2012 and 2 July 2012 Reports of Contributions and Expenditures filed by CFBF, CFBF made expenditures for radio ads and robocalls solely in support of Brian Davidson's candidacy, spending $4,640 on 9 June for "voter contact", $20,000 on 11 June for radio advertisement production and consulting, $2,331.98 on 15 June for "advertising", $3,120.66 on 16 June for "advertising", $5,000 on 18 June for "advertising", $6,000 on 21 June for "advertising", with the remainder of expenditures going to "bank fees." These expenditures constitute (unreported) contributions to BD-CUR.
8. Throughout the 2012 Election cycle, CFBF engaged in no "Issue or Policy Advocacy" activity, and ONLY operated as a conduit for contributions and expenditures on behalf of the Brian Davidson for CU Regent (BD-CUR) campaign, in order to facilitate contributions in excess of the $400 limit on contributions to a candidate committee. ALL contributions and expenditures by CFBF in 2012 were in support of BD-CUR's candidacy for elected office, more properly the function of political committees (bound by a $550 contribution limit) or candidate committees (with a $400 limit).
9. Expenditures by any person or organization on behalf of a candidate for public office that are coordinated with or controlled by the candidate or the candidate's agent are considered both a contribution to and an expenditure of the candidate's candidate committee. (See Colorado Constitution, Article XXVIII, Section 2(9) and Section 5(3).
10. Payments made to purchase and broadcast radio advertisements commissioned by, conducted at the request of, or conducted in coordination with a candidate or candidate's agent designed to assist or promote that candidate's election is an expenditure under Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution and the Colorado Fair Campaign Practices Act, C.R.S. 1-45-101, et seq.

11. The Brian Davidson for CU Regent candidate committee (BD-CUR) is not permitted to accept aggregate contributions from any one person or organization exceeding the limits proscribed in Article XXVIII, Section 3 of the Colorado Constitution.
12. CFBF failed to file Reports of Electioneering Activity, as required by statute, for the radio ads on behalf of the Brian Davidson for CU Regent campaign.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Failure to Register as a Political Committee)

13. The Complaint incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 12 as if fully set forth herein.
14. Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII, § 2(12)(a) defines a “political committee” as “any person, other than a natural person, or any group of two or more persons, including natural persons, that have accepted or made contributions or expenditures in excess of $200 to support or oppose the nomination or election of one or more candidates.”
15. All political committees shall register as such with the secretary of state before accepting any contributions or making any expenditures. C.R.S. § 1-45-108(3).
16. CFBF functioned as a political committee because it received contributions and/or made expenditures in excess of $200 during the 2012 election cycle solely in support of the candidacy of Brian Davidson for CU Regent (BD-CUR), and engaged in NO other activity in pursuit of “Issue and Policy Advocacy” during the 2012 election cycle.
17. CFBF’s contributions and expenditures total at least $41,000, ALL received from a single entity (“Colorado Justice Alliance” or CJA).. However, because CFBF functioned as a political committee, it is subject to contribution limits of $550 per person per cycle.
18. Any person, including a political committee, that commits a violation of the aforementioned reporting requirements shall be subject to sanctions as set forth in Colo. Const. art. XXVIII, § 10.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Violation of Contribution Limits)

19. The Complaint incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 18 as if fully set forth herein.
20. Pursuant to Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII, § 3(5) and Campaign Finance Rule 10.14.2(f), as a political committee, CFBF is limited to receiving contributions of not more than $550 per person per election cycle.
21. CFBF has received contributions from a single “person” (“Colorado Justice Alliance”, or CJA), in the amount of $41,000, in violation of and exceeding the allowed contribution limit of $550 per person per cycle by $40,450.
22. Pursuant to Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII, § 10(1), CFBF and CJA are subject to a civil penalty of at least double and up to five times the amount received in excess of the applicable contribution limit.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Failure to Accurately Report Campaign Expenditures)

23. The Complaint incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.
24. The CFBF Reports of Contributions and Expenditures filed on 18 June 2012 and 2 July 2012 failed to accurately report all expenditures of the committee, including all in-kind or coordinated expenditures made on behalf or in coordination with the BD-CUR candidate committee. Such expenditures include purchase and broadcast of numerous radio advertisements commencing on or about 12 June 2012 and continuing through the 26 June 2012 primary election date.
25. On information and belief, these radio advertisements constituted material that substantially contributed to, or by itself constituted, both a coordinated expenditure and an in-kind contribution under Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution and the Colorado Fair Campaign Practices Act, C.R.S. 1-45-101, et seq. as well as

26. On information and belief, the CFBF has not filed a report with the Secretary of State to correct the deficiency in disclosure set forth in paragraph 24.
27. On information and belief, the CFBF violated C.R.S. § 1-45-108(1)(a)(I) and C.R.S. § 1-45-108(1)(a)(II) by failing to accurately report all expenditures made by CFBF.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Failure to File Reports of Electioneering Communications)

28. The Complaint incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 27 as if fully set forth herein.
29. On information and belief, CFBF purchased radio advertisements in support of the BD-CUR campaign constituting “electioneering communications” as defined in Colorado Constitution Art. XXVIII, Section 2 (7).
30. On information and belief, CFBF failed to report electioneering communications in their Reports of Contributions and Expenditures filed on 18 June 2012 and 2 July 2012 (covering the periods in which the expenditures were made).
31. On information and belief, the CFBF has not filed a report with the Secretary of State to correct the deficiency in disclosure set forth in paragraph 30.
32. On information and belief, the CFBF violated C.R.S. § 1-45-108(1)(a)(I) and C.R.S. § 1-45-108(1)(a)(II) by failing to fully report all expenditures made, or obligations entered into by the CFBF political organization.
33. Pursuant to Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII, § 6, CFBF is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed twenty dollars for each contribution received and expenditure made by the committee that was not timely reported.

REQUESTED RELIEF

- A. Colorado law mandates the imposition of a penalty of $50/day for the failure to provide a statement or other information that is required by law. Colorado Constitution, Art. XXVIII, Section 10(2)(a). Therefore, the CFBF should be assessed a penalty of $50/day for each day that the organization's disclosure to the Secretary of State was inaccurate.
- B. Colorado law mandates the imposition of a civil penalty of at least double and up to five times the amount contributed, received, or spent in violation of the applicable provision of Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII (§ 10(1) et al). Therefore, such a penalty should be imposed against CFBF for both contributions received and expenditures made in violation of the applicable limits.
- C. Pursuant to Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII, § 6 and 1-45-115.5 C.R.S. , CFBF is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed twenty dollars for each electioneering expenditure made by the committee that was not timely and accurately reported.
- D. The Complainant requests such other relief as the law may permit.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 12th day of December, 2012.
